Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for November: Children Who Suffer

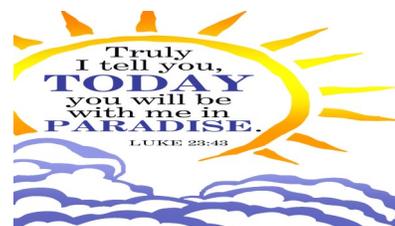

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

Almighty and ever-loving Father, how grateful I am for the gifts and talents that You have given me! I pray for the insight and wisdom to know how best I can use those gifts to serve You and others. Strengthen me to turn away from any selfish tendencies as I choose to be more generous of spirit. As I gather around the table with family and friends this Thanksgiving, I will offer thanks for the people who grace my life and for the many blessings that You continue to bestow upon me. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Today's Gospel

My dear parishioners,
As you gather around the Thanksgiving table, I hope that your family will take a moment to reflect on those blessings for which you are most grateful. Indeed, being grateful reminds us of how unique, beautiful, and happy our lives are.

As your pastor, I am grateful for your commitment to Saint Ladislaus Church, which is manifested by your faithful presence, prayers, and support that combine to make this parish a family. Father Robert and I are very thankful for your friendly and strengthening support of our ministry. Please know that you and your families are always in our prayers. May you find much comfort and joy as you celebrate this beautiful holiday that is rightfully centered on giving thanks to God. Father Piotr Rozek

Please pray for ...
the sick,
the vulnerable,
the homebound,
the homeless,
the persecuted,
the unborn, refugees,
victims of violence,
and all in need of prayer.
