Pope Francis's prayer intention for September~

For people living on the margins:

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

Almighty and ever-living God, Who created us in Your image and called us to be saints, strengthen our resolve to do what is just, what is good, what is right.
Help us to grow in mercy so that our practice of forgiveness serves as an example to others and works to spread peace. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Father Piotr, when you introduced yourself as our pastor, you stated that you pray for your St. Ladislaus parish family every night. How special were those words! It is so comforting to know that you always hold us in your heart. We are very blessed to have you here, and we thank our Heavenly Father for sending you to be the shepherd at our beautiful church. God bless you and keep you in His loving care, Father Piotr!

Be merciful.
JUST AS YOUR FATHER
is merciful
 LUKE 6:36

Today's first reading, psalm, and Gospel focus on forgiveness. The dominant mention of the words pardon and forgive speaks loudly and clearly about the need for all of us to not "nourish anger." This is a challenge for many of us, is it not? Probably everyone at some point in his/her life has been hurt by an unkind word or an act of cruelty. Some of these hurts really sting, but the sting only grows more painful if our feeling of anger is allowed to fester within us. The first reading uses the words "cherishes wrath" for those who refuse to let go of their anger toward another. This implies that the person who has been offended gets some satisfaction in holding onto hurt feelings. Let's consider for a moment: How would we feel if we asked God for forgiveness, and we were denied mercy? As we hear in today's reading from Sirach, "Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself; can he seek pardon for his own sins?"

The world is in need of mercy. Let us pray for a conversion of those hearts that are heavy with hurt, burdened with bitterness...may those hearts open and allow the Lord to enter. After all, it is the Lord who "pardons all iniquities and heals all ills."

This weekend the Diocese will take the collection for the St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility for Retired Priests. We remember those priests who ministered to us, especially those from whom we received our sacraments. Some of those priests may have retired by now and are living at the St. Pius Residence. St. Pius X enables them to be fully engaged members of the community. "Still on duty," they serve as teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders. These men have dedicated their lives to serving God and our community. The Catholic Church on Long Island is blessed and privileged to be able to care for our senior priests. Please give generously.

40 Days for Life

There will be a special Mass celebrated at our church for the 40 Days for Life next Saturday, September 23, at 10AM. As we uphold the sanctity of life, we pray for the unborn.

Life Is a Gift

Magnificat Ministry to Catholic Women is sponsoring a special breakfast event with world-renowned speaker and NYTimes best-selling author, Immaculee Ilibagiza - a survivor of the 1994 Rwandan genocide who found faith and forgiveness in the face of this tragic violence against her tribe and her family.
