Prayer of the Week

Heavenly Father, we Your children desire to be good disciples as were the fishermen who promptly dropped their nets and followed You. May we, as students and disciples of Your Word, seek always to make Your ways our own. Bless our efforts to walk in the paths You have wisely charted for us. Grant us the strength to abandon the bad habits that can cause us to veer from the road to salvation. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Reflection

question: How carefully do I follow the path that the Lord has set out for me?

*"Come ye after me,
and I will make you to become fishers of men."*

Mark 1:17

HOUSE BLESSING
Father Piotr is currently blessing homes. If you would like your home blessed, see Father after Mass, or call the rectory office.

 Charlotte Dobkowski Joan D.
 Michele Ande Jan Korszun
 Dorothy Braun Celina Oleksiej

Reflection: There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning father and fellow-workers, nets and boat. To what is Jesus calling me at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

Living Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who work to bring Gospel values and Catholic social teaching to the wider community. Let us pray that, as listening stewards, we strive to "hear" what Jesus is calling us to at this moment and in these circumstances.
