Prayer of the Week

Dear Lord, in the midst of winter, I seek the light that shines through bare branches and warms me with its glow. Lead me, Lord, light of the world, so that the winter of my soul may be thawed and open to Your love and mercy. Grant me a clear perspective so that I may recognize those going through a dark time in their lives...those who might benefit from my own light of compassion. Grant me the wisdom to use the gifts that You have given me to serve others. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Reflection question: Do I do my best to bring hope and cheerfulness to those with whom I live, work, or study, by smiling and performing deeds of kindness? How am I a light to others?

This weekend we begin the 2018

Catholic Ministries Appeal!

Bishop Barres has asked us to embrace our vocation (yes, each of us has one!) to be a missionary disciple; specifically, he is asking us to be the Hands of Christ's Mercy. How can we personally answer such a noble calling? It need not be as challenging as it may sound. Simply put, we can participate in the Catholic Ministries Appeal. By participating by means of our donations, we support the good works of the Church; thus, we become the hands of God's love. By simply writing a check in any amount, we are reaching out to thousands of Long Islanders. Remember to take a brochure that explains the various ministries that your contributions support.

It's not the size of the gift that you give; it's the fact that you give.

February 1st to

February 28th:

The theme of this year's Black History

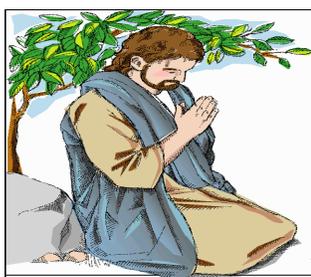

Month is "African Americans in Times of War." Let us always remember to pray for the safety of all those men and women serving in the military.

...to our parishioner and longtime lector Dr. John Pitrowski, who was recently elected President of the American Polish Council of Long Island. Our best to you, John!

Today's Gospel according to St. Mark

As we approach the Lenten season, let us follow

Very early in the morning ... Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed. Mark 1:35 our Lord's example and find quiet times and places for prayer. Plan to pray every day. Talk to the One who knows you best.

Reflection: Like St. Paul in the second reading, the good steward can say, "I do all that I do for the sake of the gospel in the hope of having a share in its blessings."

Living Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who use their gifts of healing and forgiveness to help repair relationships in families beset with divorce, death, dysfunction, or abuse.

Let us pray that, as compassionate stewards, we may be instruments of God's love, bringing comfort and healing to those in need.

For a statement of your 2017 contributions, contact Joan at the rectory office. Please notify her before coming for the statement. (516) 489-0368; joan@stladislauschurch.com
