SAINTS and SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Friday: Day of Abstinence

Saturday: Saint Patrick, Bishop

Heavenly Father, as we await the glory of the resurrection of our Lord, we long to live as Your children, children who live in the light of Your love. May our spiritual eyes be open and focused on the path that is paved with virtue. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Reflection question: When I prepare for the sacrament of Reconciliation, are my eyes open as I look inward and make an honest appraisal of my sins?

For we are
GOD'S HANDIWORK, created in CHRIST JESUS
 to do
GOOD WORKS.
 EPHESIANS 2:10, NIV

Fridays during Lent:

7PM in English,

7:30PM in Polish

Let us pray together as we join
 Jesus on His journey to the Cross.

This weekend, we take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people here at home and abroad. Please give generously. Help Jesus in disguise.

A TIME FOR US TO PRAY FOR THE RENEWAL OF THE CHURCH, FAST FROM FEAR AND ANXIETY, AND GIVE ALMS AS A WAY TO THANK GOD FOR ALL THAT HE HAS GIVEN US.

Mary Abruzzo Edward Dobkowski
Margaret Puorro Anthony Andree
Charlotte Dobkowski Joan D.
Michele Ande Jan Korszun
Dorothy Braun Celina Oleksiej
Helena Stawrowski

Reflection: All that we have and all that we are comes from the Lord. "We are truly His handiwork," says St. Paul in the second reading,

"created in Christ Jesus to lead the life of good deeds which God prepared for us in advance."

Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who remain steadfast to their Lenten promises through increased prayer, sacrifice, and almsgiving. We pray that, as repentant stewards, we use this season of Lent as an opportunity for spiritual growth.

Remember ...you are called to be holy, and holy you can be.

Did you know? National Catholic Sisters Week extends through Wednesday, March 14. The hope is that the light of recognition will shine on these beautiful religious women who have answered the vocation to live consecrated lives of poverty, celibacy, and obedience. If you were fortunate to have been taught by nuns, you are aware of the dedication and tireless effort of the sisters; at one time, the classes were comprised of fifty or sixty students! The sisters passed on the faith to the children entrusted to their care. The stellar reputation of the Catholic schools was largely built on the firm foundation of the religious sisters. Consider too the work of the sisters who devote themselves to nursing the sick. They are the hands of Christ to many in hospitals and nursing homes. They minister to the poor. If you remember a nun who has graced your life in some way, offer a prayer for her. Write her a note of gratitude. Let us commemorate these holy women, who continue to serve the Lord with gladness.

Please keep the family and friends of Krystyna Nowak in your prayers. For many years, Krystyna was very active in the parish and Polish community. Her stewardship included the years she spent as principal of the Saint Ladislaus Polish Supplementary School. Eternal rest grant unto Krystyna, dear Lord.

LENT Lent Lent Lent Lent

Living my faith...being a prayerful person

On Ash Wednesday, we resolved to make an effort to pray more. Now, as we begin the fourth week of Lent, it is a good time to ask ourselves, "How are we doing?" Have we managed to carve out time to pray in the course of our task-filled days? We need not consider prayer a chore to be checked off our 'to do' lists; rather, it is a pleasure, a blessed activity that excuses us, even briefly, from the jobs and people requiring our time and attention. There are still weeks left in which to indulge in prayer. Seize any precious moments you can to spend with our loving Father, the One who knows you inside and out and longs to hear from you. Remember that no good conversation is one-sided. Listen to Him. Present yourself to God and then be present to Him. His peace will truly be with you.
