Prayer of the Week

Almighty ever-living God, You have entrusted us with the capacity to love others. As the author of love Who sent us the perfect embodiment of pure, selfless love in Your Son, please fill our hearts with the desire to show mercy and compassion to all whom we encounter. May Your perfect love remain alive in us and be brought to perfection as we live according to Your commandments. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflection question. Is there anyone in my life whom I should try to love this week?

The lovely month of May is the month of Mary. St. Francis de Sales said, "The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary."

Today's Second Reading

Living My Faith in the month of May

How very fitting that Mother's Day comes in the same month that is devoted to our Blessed Mother. When we pray the rosary, we meditate on the joyful, sorrowful, glorious, and luminous times in Mary's life as the Mother of our Lord. Perhaps this year while you are going through catalogues or walking up and down the mall looking for the perfect gift to convey your gratitude and love for your mother, you will consider giving her a spiritual gift...a gift of prayer. Why not find a quiet spot and offer at least one decade of the rosary on your mother's behalf? As the one who gave you life, your mother was probably the first one to teach you to pray. No doubt the Hail Mary was one of the first prayers that she whispered at bedtime and had you repeat in the sweet innocence of childhood until its words were etched in your heart. No doubt your mother often prayed to Blessed Mary for strength and guidance while raising you to be who you are now, a person of faith. Most mothers would rather you not spend money on them but rather spend time with them. Even if you cannot be with your mother this coming Mother's Day, you can devote time to her by praying for her.

Reflection: Jesus' commandment is that His disciples love one another, even to the point of laying down their lives, if necessary. Stewardship:

What gifts of myself-my skills and talents, my time and resources- will best demonstrate my love for God's people?

We pray that, as grace-filled stewards, we embrace the obligation to serve others.
