Prayer of the Week

God our Father, You sent us Your beloved Son to teach us the true meaning of love. You also sent us the Holy Spirit, Who inspires us with the power to live as Your children. In thanksgiving for the wondrous mystery of the Holy Trinity, we ask You to open our hearts to Your guidance so that we may live as we were made, in Your Divine image.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflection: question.

When I pray the Sign of the Cross, am I reminded of the magnitude of my being a Baptized person, one of a faith community that shares a belief in the Trinity?

BAPTIZED
in the Triune God

Today's Gospel

Living My Faith.....Reverence

As we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity, we ought to reflect on the significance of the Sign of the Cross. Indeed, the Sign of the Cross identifies us as Catholics. By blessing ourselves thus, we acknowledge our faith. When we dip our fingers into the holy water and then bless ourselves, we are reminded of our Baptism...our welcome into the Catholic faith.

Although we begin and end our prayers by signing ourselves, the Sign of the Cross is not an introduction to prayer; in fact, the Sign of the Cross is a prayer in itself. This heightened awareness of the significance of the Sign of the Cross should prompt us to a reflection of the manner in which we bless ourselves.

Whenever we do something repeatedly over time, we tend to do it automatically, without thought. Something done habitually is often done hurriedly. Perhaps you have seen some people bless themselves without even touching their head, chest, or shoulders. I think of it as an 'airbrushing' rather than a blessing. You could say that it is tantamount to a rapid-fire recitation of a spoken prayer. After all, we don't 'speed pray' do we?

Shouldn't a prayer be said deliberately, carefully? We enter the church, stop at the holy water font, dip our right hand and begin our worship with the Sign of the Cross. Our slow and deliberate action signals us to the fact that we have come here with a purpose, have closed the door on our temporal world, and are prepared to give God our full attention. Making the Sign of the Cross serves as a 'spiritual summons' to a serious communication with God. Today, as we focus on the Most Holy Trinity, let us commit to offering this beautiful prayer as a priest did at our Baptism...thoughtfully and reverently.

"What are you going to do today with your gift of life?"
