Prayer of the Week

Merciful and loving Father, generous Giver of the riches of Your grace, grant us the strength to deal with the ever-present worldliness that can erode our spirituality. May our hearts and minds forever be directed toward the glory that awaits us as Your faithful children. Confident in Your mercy, may we be aware of our transgressions and work to overcome temptation. We ask this through Christ our Lord, in Whom our hope is found. *Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.*

Reflection question: Is it easy for me to admit to my weaknesses? Do I recognize the need to rely on God's mercy?

My Grace
is sufficient for you, for my power
is made perfect
in w e a k n e s s .
2 C o r i n t h i a n s 1 2 : 9

Today's psalm reminds us that we can and should always turn to the Lord and plead for His mercy.

Each of us knows of our propensity to sin; however, each of us knows that the Lord is waiting to show us His unfailing mercy. Yes, mercy is there for us; we need only repent and ask.

At the end of the day, when we take stock of our thoughts, words, and actions during that day, do we honestly ask ourselves, "Which of my behaviors brought me closer to the Lord, as though I were taking steps toward Him? Which made me feel like I was backing away from the Lord?" How comforting to know that this precious mercy is the gift that does not diminish with time; rather, it "keeps on giving."

Reflection: This weekend after celebrating the independence of our country, we will do well to echo the Psalmist, saying, "Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for His mercy." May we always recognize and use wisely the gifts of freedom and abundance He has showered upon us.

Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who embrace the call of good citizenship by sharing their gifts at home, work, school, parish, community, and world. We pray that, as Christian stewards, we work to bring justice and peace, reconciliation and healing, and respect and dignity to all in God's world.
