Prayer of the Week

O Lord, grant us the strength to approach and embrace the role of evangelists. Through our words of encouragement, may people hear Your message of love and hope. Through our acts of charity and selflessness, may people see Your example of service. Bless our efforts as we work to be the 'hands of Christ' in our daily lives. May the words we use at work and at play reflect our commitment to discipleship and our desire to "be holy and without blemish before Him." Confident in Your mercy and the "riches of (Your) grace," help us to face our transgressions and work to overcome temptation.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever: Amen.

Reflection question. Which aspect of my personality lends itself to the role of evangelist? Is it my eagerness to share joy with others? My energy to do good things for others? My ability to communicate well with others? How can I use my God-given gifts to preach the gospel?

First of all, I thank all of those who contributed to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal. If you have been referring to the weekly updates in the bulletin, you have observed that the number of contributors has slowed down to a trickle; only one donation was made in the past three weeks. Unfortunately, that is the downside of reaching and surpassing the goal early on in the campaign. As parish overseer of the Appeal, I might have set the bar a bit high by hoping to achieve a greater donor participation, namely 100 donors; however, I continue to remind myself that we have more than one hundred individuals/families who attend our church on a regular basis. With this in mind, I ask once more that those who have not given will make a contribution in any amount. As I have oft repeated, it is not the amount that you give; it is the fact that you give. Each of us is more than a member of a parish community; each of us is a member of a diocese as well. Please help us show that these memberships, which form part of our identities, do indeed prompt us to present ourselves as active parish/diocesan members. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Reflection: Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God.

The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve disciples. St. Paul reminds us that we too are chosen. To whom have I been sent? For what have I been chosen? Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who develop their talents to the fullest and use them in service to the parish community.

We pray that, as disciple stewards, we seek to take an active role in building God's kingdom through service to our parish and the wider community.

This summer, let us ask ourselves, "Do I know anyone who is ill or elderly and might need to seek relief from the summer heat? Perhaps it is time to knock on a neighbor's door and find out.
