Prayer of the Week

Kind and loving Father, we Your children call to You from a world sorely in need of peace. You gave us Your Son Jesus, Who is peace. It is He in whom our peace can be found. Make us true disciples of peace who spread Your message of goodness and justice in our insular worlds of home and workplace; thus may our kindness and love work to erode manmade boundaries of enmity. May we always follow our Gentle Shepherd as He leads us to "verdant pastures" of tranquility. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflection question. Do I daily resolve to be a beacon of peace and good will at home and at my place of work?

Reflection: In today's Gospel, Jesus had planned to slip away from the crowds for a few moments of peace and a little rest. When He saw the people gathered, however, He put His needs aside to meet the needs of others. Sometimes, as good stewards, we are called to do the same. Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who find true joy in placing the needs of others before their own desires. We pray that, as faith-filled stewards, we strive to serve our neighbor by joyfully sharing with others directly from our sustenance.

This summer, let's ask ourselves, "Do I know anyone who is ill or elderly and might need to seek relief from the summer heat? Perhaps it is time to knock on a neighbor's door and find out."
