Prayer of the Week

Almighty, ever-living God, open our hearts and minds to receive the spiritual gifts You give so generously. As You love us with a perfect love, we ask for the help of the Holy Spirit in guiding us to love others selflessly. Open our eyes to see Your face in those of our brothers and sisters. Strengthened by the Bread of Life, may we go forth nourished, renewed, and eager to live as Your faithful children. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

As Catholics, we look forward to reading the newly published Pastoral Letter of Bishop Barres. The letter, entitled "The Supreme Gift: The Gift of Life," appears in the current issue of The Long Island Catholic and can be accessed on the Diocesan website in both English and Spanish. There is a limited number of copies in the church for those who do not receive The Long Island Catholic; for this reason, please take only one copy. Thank you.

A respect for life quote:

"Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights—for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture—is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination."

Our parish mourns the passing of Mr. Carlos Ervas. Carlos was a faithful parishioner who was a friend and active supporter of the Pater Noster Youth Group, which provided the music at our Sunday evening Masses. Please keep his family in your prayers. Eternal rest grant unto Carlos, dear Lord.

Reflection: The crowd in today's Gospel demanded a sign of Jesus and wanted to know what "work" He did to inspire their faith. May our faithful stewardship be a sign to others that we, like the Ephesians in the second reading, have laid aside our former way of life and acquired a "fresh, spiritual way of thinking" in Christ. Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who stand ready to change their lives whenever and wherever God speaks to them. We pray that, as faith-filled stewards, we rejoice in, and not be envious of, the different gifts and talents God has given to others.
