Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month
June is for families:

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

Prayer of the Week

Heavenly Father, as we celebrate this solemn feast, we prepare our hearts and minds to receive the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Inspired by the way the apostles received the message of the Holy Spirit, we pray that we embrace and commit to that holy message so that we speak truthfully and act peacefully in all daily encounters. May we work toward understanding those who speak diverse languages by adopting a universal language of kindness and forgiveness.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

In two weeks, we will celebrate.....

Arranging to have a Novena of Masses celebrated for all fathers, living or deceased, is a beautiful way to honor and remember our dads. Envelopes are available in the church.

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—He will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." John 14:26

Living our faith means using the gifts that we have been given. Let us reflect on the seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit that we received at our Baptism.

- ◆ Wisdom: a gift of knowing what is good and just. Wisdom is a gift of maturity, one that enables us to see things not through our own eyes, but through those of God.
- ◆ Understanding: a gift that enables us to be aware of God's working in our lives and to comprehend the Church's teachings.
- ◆ Counsel: a gift of right judgment that enables us to clearly distinguish that which is right from that which is wrong and to apply that distinction to our actions and decisions.
- ◆ Fortitude: a gift of courage that is built upon the gifts of wisdom and counsel. Once we know what is true and good, we have the ability to do the right thing and to fight temptation.
- ◆ Knowledge: As our relationship with God deepens, we know what He is asking of us, how He wants us to live. Rather than doing everything according to our own individual wills, we act according to the will of God.
- ◆ Piety: a gift of fidelity to God. We are devoted to God and therefore dutifully and happily commit to serving Him lovingly and willingly.
- ◆ Fear of the Lord: the gift of reverence that is manifested in our overwhelming desire to please God and be close to Him always. We long to honor Him.

Reflection: Is the Holy Spirit guiding you to something today?

A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.

Pentecost Sunday is a good day to take stock of the gifts each of us has been given. By using your gifts for others, you are allowing your faith to grow. People who share their talents are happy people.

Pray to God for His guidance in directing how you can use your God-given gifts for others. Remember: We show gratitude for any gift when we use that gift.

Please pray for ...
the sick,
the vulnerable,
the homebound,
the homeless,
the persecuted,
the unborn, refugees,
victims of violence,
and all in need of prayer.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL UPDATE

We have reached 48.65% of our $13,700 goal.

As of May 31, thirty-one donors have pledged $6,665. Our thanks go to these donors! Have you considered making a donation? Please do.

Our gratitude for the gifts of the Holy Spirit is realized in our using them for "our good and the good of the Church."

Veni, Sancte Spiritus!
Come, Holy Spirit, Come!
