Prayer of the Week

Almighty God our Father, grant that we embrace the gift of freedom and use it in its noblest sense. Guided by the Holy Spirit, may we aim to love and serve our neighbor. Free us from any desires and impulses that are self-serving and unkind. Keep us ever-aware of our having been freed from the slavery of sin so that we forever celebrate this true and uplifting emancipation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflection question. Am I tied to any behaviors that inhibit my living the life of freedom that Christ has in mind for me?

Today's Gospel
according to Saint Mark

Please note: the rectory office will be closed on Wednesday, July 4, in observance of our national holiday. May you enjoy a safe and joyful Fourth of July. God bless America!

Last weekend, there was an Ordination of Priesthood in our Diocese. Seminarian Leo Song became Father Leo Song. As Long Island Catholics, we give thanks to the Lord for this young man who heard and answered His call. As participants in the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we parishioners of St. Ladislaus Church have had a part in the training of Father Song. May God bless him in his ministry.

Reflection: Today’s reading from Saint Paul explains the “divine economy “ of stewardship-”The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty...should supply their need so their surplus may in turn one day supply your need. Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who ask themselves, “What do I have to share that might meet someone else’s need?” We pray that, as generous stewards, our own example inspires others to serve gratefully.
